

Jeep Compass MK MY13

Description

2013 rare 4WD Jeep Compass Sport in charcoal grey with grey interior and a very low 31,000 klms since new and in our opinion priced very well at just under $16K. It has NSW registration until August 2018 and this is a very nice saving off a new car. The leather wheel is in pristine , all the paint is in very original condition and the interior is not showing signs of wear on the dials, buttons, door trims, head lining and even the alloy wheels are in exceptionally good condition. This would have to be the most sought after colour combination and these Jeeps so hold their value very well and will continue to moving forwards. We sell a lot of Jeeps and they really are a very nice vehicle to drive as they don’t feel overly large like a lot of 4WD’s. We look forward to showing you this Compass in our showroom very soon as hope you will agree that the previous owner was a very fussy one too.
