– being an Elegance you get the nicer leather interior, electric seats, woodgrain interior, alloy wheels and a factory sun roof
– this car has had every single service by Sandersons Mercedes Benz and has been garaged in the city
– the elderly lady was no longer able to drive
– we will have this car sent to a Merc mechanic for a check over
– overall a very nice car which is priced well with such low mileage
– they have dual zone climate control air conditioning, cruise control with speed limiter, are bluetooth compatible and so much more
– it’s a car which even though it’s the smaller size it certainly is massive in the luggage area.
– we really like this series and they are a bullet-proof in many ways

– we are extremely thorough about the sort of cars we buy and go over them with a fine-tooth comb.
