

Mercedes-Benz SL500 R230

Description

What an unbelievable find this car is! It is truly in the most stunning, original condition. August 2002 Australian Delivered Mercedes Benz SL500 Roadster in Zircon silver with grey leather interior and only 72,000 klms since new. Alloy wheels, leather wheel, good Mercedes service history with all services in total and simply one of the loveliest SL's on the market today. Mercedes Benz Command navigation, leather seats, unmarked paintwork, superb interior condition and just one of those cars you know has been pampered and certainly garaged over the years. We literally wait years for cars like this to come up and are so so proud to take the time to show you, have a test drive and hopefully you'll agree on the impeccable condition of the roadster. They come standard with an electric hard top, dual zone climate control air conditioning, power seats with memory and massage settings as well as the usual blue tooth and navigation as standard. This series would have to be the next car to be really classed as a classic car in years to come and hopefully hold it's value very well moving forwards.
