Alfa Romeo 159 MY09

Description

It's hard to find an immaculate 2010 Alfa Romeo 159 Ti Station wagon with 63,000 klms and pretty much nothing to spend!! Not only are we such fussy dealers that pride ourselves in excellent cars with great service histories and this car but we are proud to say that this Ti wagon ticks all of the boxes. With such low klms this car is the very popular black with tan leather, and the 159 JTD 2.4 litre turbo diesel station wagon is in the most unbelievable condition; you really have to come see for yourself. Registered in NSW until March 2019, fully automatic, Ti grey alloy wheels, full service books, remote locking, ABS, dual zone climate air and easily the best colour combination these cars come out in. They not only are the best Italian Sports wagon to look at but once you drive this car you won't want to get out of it. We sell loads of these cars from our dealership and can't wait to take you for a decent test drive in this very impressive and powerful wagon. Incidentally we are sending this car to our Alfa Romeo specialist for a complete check over, service and sort out any mechanical issues prior to being sold.
