

Aston Martin DB9 MY09

Description

There aren’t too many cars that we sit in our showroom and just stare at. This stunning 2009 Aston Martin DB9 V12 automatic ticks every single box and has a full dealership service history from new. The charcoal grey with very dark grey leather is superb, the car has spare keys, the wheels are unmarked and it only just had a service from Aston Martin in Brisbane before it was sold here in Sydney. We search for years for good quality English sports cars that we hope will not only hold their value for years to come but provide someone with an amazing experience at the same time – and we are pretty confident of that. Everything about this car makes you smile from the unmarked paintwork, the immaculate leather interior, the smooth woodgrain, the dials and buttons aren’t all marked and worn, the suede head liner is perfect and this is just one of those James Bond iconic vehicles you want to go on a long drive in. Spend some super money and enjoy life! We look forward to meeting you soon and this car will be registered in NSW for the successful buyer.
