* this is in what has to be one of the most stunning colour combinations * has only travelled 91,000 klms since new * Log books that are from the Audi dealership
* we have sold this car to the two previous owners
* We are so obsessed with the light metallic grey with the lighter grey leather interior
* alloy wheels that really do suit the car
* This is so well equipped from the full leather interior, sun roof, parking sensors * bluetooth, the current MMI system which allows you to stream music * and it has it’s own jukebox amongst other things and so much more * This car would have cost just under $80K when new 5 years ago
* with these options and certainly seems like it has been garaged and pampered by the previous owner.
