

Audi Q5 MY11

Description

This is an absolutely stunning 2011 Audi Q5 2.0 TFSi Quattro with a very low 46,000 klms since new, spare remote keys and a full up to date Audi service log book. In metallic blue with light tan leather interior, parking sensors, blue tooth, alloy wheels and just one of the most pristine, honest examples of the Q5 we have seen to date. We have become so fussy about what we buy and sell and this car truly is in near new condition with nothing to spend aside from just being due for registration in March which we can assist with. These cars are highly sought after especially with such low klms and this is a huge saving from what a new car would have cost. Here in Sydney it’s very rare to find a car that quite literally still smells like new and has not had loads of kids spilling things in the back. We look forward to meeting you in person and showing you this lovely car that we are very proud of.
