Description

This one owner 2011 (MY12) Q7 TDI Quattro S-Line with only 89,000 klms is the updated version with the larger wheels and the 8 speed transmission, shorter gear shifter and LED daytime running lights. Full S-line exterior package, larger titanium alloy wheels from Audi, Teknic pack, panoramic sunroof, this Q7 looks stunning in charcoal grey metallic with black leather interior and is fully optioned. It comes with a full up to date service history and 2 sets of keys. We have just sent this car to an Audi specialist here in Sydney and as these are renowned for small oil seepage from the rear main seal leak we have had this fully repaired and is under our dealer warranty. This would have to be one of the best 7 seater SUVs available and only last year we sold the identical series car and were asking $53,950.00. We are very proud of low klm cars like this and very much look forward to seeing you in person one day soon. It even has NSW registration until March 2019 which is a great bonus.
