

Bentley Turbo

Description

This absolutely stunning 1987 Australian delivered Bentley Turbo R is black with a lovely pale blue leather interior and has only travelled a mere 118,000 klms since new. With late 2018 NSW registration, service books that are up to date and runs perfectly, this iconic sedan from the late 80's is quite simply one of the most impressive four door sedans from this era. Recently traded in at our Sydney based car showroom we are very proud to offer this Turbo R for sale. There are a lot of very average cars out there and this seems to be a good, honest vehicle that is in one of the most sought after colours. We will have this car checked over thoroughly prior to being sold and the previous owner certainly was one of those very enthusiastic and fussy Bentley owners that you would hope to purchase from. We very much look forward to meeting you one day soon.
