

BMW 530i E60 MY08

Description

This superb 79,000 klms since new 2007 LCi update BMW 530i M-Sport sedan this is, with heads up display. navigation, glass sun roof, has been serviced at a BMW dealership and specialists. It is literally one of the tightest examples we have sold and our mechanics are going to thoroughly go over this car prior to it leaving our dealership. 79,000 klms in 11 years is nothing for this super smooth 6-cylinder engine and the metallic grey with the black leather interior is a superb colour combination. The sun roof works perfectly and is overall in extremely good condition throughout. This series is called the E60 and not only are they an excellent size but being an M-Sport sedan you get some very nice cosmetic add ons too. Such as; M-Tech alloy wheels, sportier seats, better suspension, leather steering wheel and M-Tech decals inside the door trims. It should hold it’s value very well moving forwards. We can’t wait to take you for a nice test drive one day soon and hope you agree that this is one of the best BMW wagons overall.
