

Fiat 500 Series 1

Description

What a cool little car for under $12K! A 2014 Fiat 500 with only 23,000 klms since new, service history and it’s a very desirable automatic transmission which are far nicer to drive than the manuals. The brilliant red with the black interior looks superb as do the smart looking alloy wheels and this car has loads of fun features. From your usual air conditioning, power steering, electric windows and colour coded bumpers through to a CD player, chrome door handles, ABS, 6 speaker sound, leather steering wheel and central locking. These little cars are so fuel efficient and that’s such an important factor when considering a car in Sydney. They look so cool and really are a credit to Fiat who are a huge manufacturer around the world. We love our little 500 Sport and hope you do too! It even has NSW rego until September 2018 and we do have the original wheels and tyres as well!
