

Ford Fairlane 300

Description

 Since 1994 our family run business has been specialising in prestige European car sales from our indoor warehouse in Sydney **

 WINNER of the 2020 Local Business awards for Outstanding Automotive Services

Model : Automatic Ford 1959 Custom 300 2 Door sedan

Built at Ford's Chicago Plant in Late December 1958

Engine is a 145 BHP, 223cubic inch or 3.7 Litre Mileage Six

The transmission is the very rare for 1959 Factory optioned 3 speed Fordomatic

The 1959 custom 300 was one model available from a huge range of body styles , engine sizes and interior and exterior colour choices. A large range of options was also available at extra cost.

Despite being the lowest price model in Ford's 1959 range the Custom 300 was arguably the cleanest and most popular body design sporting a distinct lack of excess ornamentation.

As a matter of fact the entire range received the Gold Medal of the Comite' Francais de l'Elegance at the Brussels World's Fair "for exceptional proportions and elegance of line”

The car is a true survivor, last registered in 1981 and left to sleep for years in the small rural town of Greene Iowa, prior to the most recent purchase and importation to Australia in 2009.

As of now this vehicle has travelled a mere 1,000 miles or 1,600 km in the last 40 years.

With an abundance presence and style, it manages to attract regular admirers from fellow car drivers and pedestrians alike on any outing.

Its engine is quite lively with loads of torque, it drives and performs very well with gear changes that are both smooth and responsive.

Body work and mechanicals are tribute to its low mileage and the care of its 3 owners

The vehicle has received a new Canadian made spectra premium fuel tank. Brakes have been serviced and most components selectively replaced.

The vehicle is presented is fully registered.

Available at extra cost, the current owner has a large range of NOS parts including the complete correct seat trim materials piping, also a used RHD dash, should a conversion be pursued.

All import documentation is available on request to the new owner.

For 62 years this Classic vehicle has sided stepped the ravages of time to reward the new owner the opportunity of acquiring ownership of a true American automotive classic whilst simultaneously saving the costs and hassles of importing a classic car from the USA themselves.
