WB Holden Panel Van 1981

This very tidy, matching numbers WB Panel Van from 1981 has been owned in the same family since 1989. Originally white, well restored to the factory black paintwork, tan vinyl interior, complete with log books and drives extremely well this superb Holden can only be expected to increase in value moving forwards.

Side windows, fan in the roof, column shift automatic are just some of the period features of this classic panel van.

This Holden has been carefully hand picked for an International TV series being filmed here in NSW in late January and can be sold as part of the show. That means that if you buys this lovely Holden it will come loaded with extra features and you can be part of this very well renowned show being filmed buying your dream car.

The future modifications at no extra charge that will be carried out as part of the show are;

- Engine unleaded conversion
- Carburettor upgrade (specifics TBC)
- Custom wrap and decal (colour TBC)
- Car lowered
- NSW registration including a blue slip and CTP
