

Jaguar X-Type MY10

Description

Here we have a very special Jaguar X-Type 2010 with a staggeringly low 90,000 klms since new in the most stunning colour combination and has a full service history from 2010. The pale blue metallic has some silver in it and the cream leather interior looks just superb inside this super smooth V6 2.1 litre LE model which stands for Limited Edition. Being a 2010 you get the more modern interior dash layout. the newer front grill which is a chrome mesh, but it still gets the very popular 2.1 litre V6 engine and a nicer set of Jag alloys which look great. The tyres on this car are in excellent condition and overall the paintwork, leather, headlining, door trims, dials and buttons are all in what can only be described as pristine and original. This is such good value for money being such a late model, compact Jag that you won’t need to spend money on for a very long time we hope. Our two full time mechanics will go over this car thoroughly prior to it leaving our dealership and it has NSW registration. Thank you for taking the time to hopefully come and see this great little car in person.
