

Jaguar X-Type X400 MY05

Description

This is an absolute stunning example of the automatic 2005 Jaguar X-Type 3.0 AWD with an original 166,000 klms since new (13,800 klms per year which is average) and service history from new all from Jaguar dealerships and specialists here in Sydney. Black with cream leather interior, satellite navigation, parking sensors, cruise control and a nice set of Jag alloy wheels really do set this lovely car off. Being an ’05 its the update series with the slightly newer interior and not a lot changed from the previous model but the combination of a silky smooth V6 3.0 litre engine and an all wheel drive system is like driving a little train around the place. This is such a good car with these sort of highway klms and being so fussy we are ever so proud to offer this car for sale. It even has NSW registration until late 2018.
