- 2015 new series Jaguar XF supercharged V6 in white on black leather
- in 2014 there was a new update with red centre caps in the alloy wheels
- this car has 250kW of power and has been well serviced
- you can tell it's had some decent highway mileage for a 4 year old car and drives so well
- blue tooth for phone and music
- cruise control with speed limiter
- rose wood interior finish
- stunning factory body kit and rear spoiler which we have never seen before
- April 2020 registration in NSW
- Polar white is one of the most sought after Jag colours we are finding
- dual zone climate control air conditioning
- larger factory alloy wheels
- electric front seats
- this was a very expensive car when new and well over the $100K mark
- we only just sold the same model with less klms for over $40K so we feel this is brilliant value for money
- we are so excited about this superb vehicle and hope you are too

- we are extremely thorough about the sort of cars we buy and go over them with a fine-tooth comb.
