

Land Rover Range Rover L322 03MY

Description

2002 Range Rover HSE wagon with 215,000 klms since new and the best log book service history you hope hope for by a Specialist. It has 2 remote keys, is black in colour with charcoal grey leather interior and the interior is good condition compared to others we have seen. The most important thing to consider when looking at a range rover is its mechanical condition and log book; it’s even had a gearbox overhaul recently from the previous owner. Black with Charcoal grey leather interior is a very good colour combination and and it has the larger Vogue wheels. We think that based on it’s current condition and having travelled a very sensible 196,000 klms since new it represents very good value for money. We look forward to meeting you in person at our showrooms soon. NSW registration until August 2018.
