

Lexus IS250 GSE20R

Description

This stunning and very very rare “MANUAL” silver blue 2008 Lexus IS 250 “X” series is in excellent original condition with only 112,000 klms and has recently been traded in on a newer car. The interior is the very popular dark grey leather and this car has NSW registration until December 2018. Obviously these are not only one of the most reliable cars in the world but with a great history always serviced by Lexus dealer and specialists and in this colour combination we would hope this car holds it’s value very well moving forwards. Our prestige car dealership sells a lot of Lexus and they never seem to sit around very long. We are very proud to offer this 6-speed manual car for sale and look forward to meeting you in person one day soon to take you for a nice test drive. This car has satellite navigation, blue tooth, reversing camera, 5-spoke “X” style alloys and drives extremely well compared to a lot of others we have seen but said no to as they’re not good enough to offer for sale.
