Mercedes-Benz B200

Description

Where do you find a 2006 model Mercedes Benz B200 5 door hatch with not only 84,000 genuine klms and has had Mercedes Benz dealership services from new? Here in Sydney we source cars like this very rarely and it even has a set of factory wheels, cruise control, air conditioning, spare keys and is registered in NSW. Zircon silver with charcoal grey interior and we have only just sent this car to a Mercedes Benz specialist for a complete check over and it only needed a couple of items attended to which we did. We sell so many of these B-Classes and are so proud when we get one in that is in this sort of condition with these very low kilometers. If you are looking for a small to medium sized hatchback that will have a very long life ahead of it and is safe and reliable please look no further. It's in lovely condition.
