

Mercedes-Benz CLK320 C209

Description

Here in Sydney we are becoming so fussy about what we sell and this 2004 Mercedes Benz CLK320 Elegance coupe is just in the most pristine condition you could hope for and at such a sensible asking price and a mere 86,000 klms since new. We sells loads of this W209 CLK series and this one is a stand out in every way. Zircon silver, dark grey leather interior, log books that are up to date and basically from the Benz dealer Tynan, drives exceptionally well and NSW registration. This is actually a car we are going to be very reluctant to reduce the price on so it’s fixed and in our opinion is a bargain. There are so many CLK320’s on the market and it’s very important that you know exactly what to look for and in every regard this is a car that you won’t be disappointed with. The leather seats, the dash, all the dials and buttons, the door trims, head liner, paintwork, wheels, tyres are simply all stunning. We really need you to come to see for yourself and agree as to how good it really is. Our staff have become so passionate about certain cars and we all stood around and just said how nice it is to get cars like this to sell.
