

Mercedes-Benz CLK63 C209

Description

CLK63 AMG’s are rare to begin with, to then find one in such immaculate condition to present for sale is a real pleasure. This 2006 “Disegno” edition with just 101,227 original documented km’s is finished in Zircon Silver over Black perforated leather, and the combination is superb. There are all Mercedes Benz stamps in the log book and it has been very well maintained and up to date having just had a service 3,000 klms ago. The car is an everyday supercar with the added bonus of having a sunroof, 4-seats and a decent sized boot. The disegno edition has the alcantara suede headlining, Xenon headlights, heated sports bucket seats, Mercedes-Benz update Command Navigation and keyless entry as well as keyless start to name just a few of the features. We honestly feel this car will always be highly desirable due to it being the last naturally aspirated AMG V8 engine produced and should hold its value very well moving forwards. It’s Zircon silver with the black perforated leather seats with extra air support via 4 controllers on the sides of the seats.
