Opportunities to purchase a genuinely exceptional W211 E500 are becoming increasingly rare, particularly when equipped with the highly sought-after 5.5-litre V8 engine.

Finished in elegant Zircon Silver with a beautifully presented black leather interior, this Mercedes-Benz E500 Avantgarde represents the perfect blend of luxury, performance and timeless German engineering. Having travelled just 153,000 kilometres since new, it has been owned by an elderly gentleman who has maintained the vehicle to an exceptionally high standard.

Powered by Mercedes-Benz's renowned naturally aspirated 5.5-litre V8 engine, this E500 delivers effortless performance, a wonderful V8 soundtrack and the refinement that made the E-Class one of the benchmark luxury sedans of its era. Many enthusiasts specifically seek out the 5.5-litre model, regarded by many as one of Mercedes-Benz's finest modern V8 engines.

Importantly, the vehicle has recently had all air suspension airbags replaced, providing valuable peace of mind for the next owner. The attention to detail continues with the alloy wheels, which have recently undergone a professional refurbishment costing approximately $1,500 and now present virtually as new.

This is the sort of car that has clearly been cherished throughout its life and stands well above the average example currently available on the market.
