– What a superb, stunning and amazing car these are.
– 2007 Mercedes Benz E63 AMG
– Obsidian Black metalic with Black leather interior
– heated front seats
– rear entertainment system with headphones
-just checked over
– Harman Kardon sound system
– only 139,000 klms since new
– good service history
– What a massive saving on the new car price and we are struggling to find a single mark or imperfection inside or outside this AMG. I
– it also has a factory sun roof
– You can also tell this car has not been thrashed not only from the way it drives and how tight it is but also due to the extremely good order of the interior, dials, buttons, headlining and door trims.
– Please take the time to come to our dealership in person and enjoy this
