

Mercedes-Benz ML500 W164

Description

This absolutely stunning new series Mercedes Benz ML500 from 2005 (MY06) has only travelled a genuine 121,000 klms since new and has a full service history from new and really is one of the best examples you will see for sale in Australia.

When considering this car please remember that it’s the whole new shape that started in 2005 and was known as the W164 series. It had the whole new front end, interior and overall a much better model.

In Tansanite blue with tan leather this 5-seater 4WD has front and rear parking sensors, blue tooth capability, navigation, ,factory sun roof, sunroof, factory Mercedes alloy wheels in excellent condition, good tyres and will be registered here in NSW for the successful buyer. This is one of those cars we are so proud to sell and can’t wait to show the first interested buyer just how tight it is to drive. Everything works beautifully and this just ticks so many boxes to ensure that this V8 Merc will see a very good long life ahead of it and we look forward to meeting you on person and showing you this ML that we have only just recently had at our Mercedes Benz mechanic for a full inspection to make sure everything is ok.

The Oldtimer Centre® is located at 29-31 Antoine Street, Rydalmere, NSW 2116.
