

Porsche 911 996 MY01

Description

What a rare, stunning beast this Australian Delivered 2001 Porsche 911 Turbo coupe in slate grey with pale grey leather interior this is with only 108,000 klms since new and in the most superb condition you could hope for. Excellent servicing history, factory navigation, the original phone (very cool) and this is a car that has to be seen to be appreciated. We are extremely fussy about cars we sell and how we prepare them as we have been since 1994. This is the best colour combination and the tiptronic is awesome to drive and well suited to Sydney traffic. We absolutely love this car and can’t wait to show it to buyers and even though we would love to sell it quickly if it sits in our showroom we get to look at it all day. Please no silly offers and only serious buyers as 911s are holding their value extremely well these days. This car has been fully serviced, checked over, had new tyres and anything we thought needed to be done has been sorted out. See you very soon in our showroom hopefully. This car will come with NSW registration upon a successful sale as it came from interstate.
