

Porsche 911 997

Description

 Since 1994 our family run business has been specialising in prestige European car sales from our indoor warehouse in Sydney **

-This 2009 compliance Australian Delivery from new is stunning in every regard and is a very desirable manual Twin Turbo Porsche 911 Turbo cabriolet.
– This car is simply gorgeous in every way and has a full Porsche servicing history from new in 09 and we have just sent it to Porsche to have anything rectified that needed to be done for sale.
– It’s quite simply the best 4-seater convertible money can buy and with Porsche 911’s soaring in value this is actually a decent investment even when we’re considering second hand cars these days.
– It’s metallic Basalt black with black leather interior, is 6-speed manual which is by far the best thing to look for when buying a Turbo and is in mint condition with the 2 original keys, all original paper work and a car that has been loved, pampered and garaged since new.
– The interior still looks like it did the day it was released in Australia and of course it has it’s Australian delivery compliance plate as it was sold here in Sydney new.
– We sell a lot of Porsche cars and it’s very important to know what to look for; we check these cars over for things like discs and pads, rear spoiler mechanism, service history and so much more.
