

Rolls-Royce Phantom

Description

 Since 1994 our family run business has been specialising in prestige European car sales from our indoor warehouse in Sydney **
 WINNER of the 2020 Local Business awards for Outstanding Automotive Services

– 2006 Rolls Royce Phantom
– one owner since new
– around $1M in 2006 when sold new here in Australia
– 31,000 klms
– perfect history
– not only has it been maintained well but the overall presentation of this car is immaculate
– the thick soft Rolls carpet and the leather still smell like new
– the original owner and his wife were flown to England to physically see the actual car on the production line
– Opulent doesn’t begin to describe this deliciously decadent luxury limousine, which is powered by the brand’s hallmark 6.75-litre V12 engine and offers physics-defying acceleration, all wrapped in a cone of virtual silence.
– From 2003 until the launch of the smaller Ghost in 2009, the Phantom was the only car produced by Rolls-Royce.
– Customers could choose from 44,000 paint colours, and specify any leather colour.

– The vehicle’s unique instrument panel has no tachometer. Instead it has a power reserve dial that indicates how much of the engine’s power is not being used and available to the driver
– The rear doors are rear-hinged, a style commonly referred to as suicide doors, but called ‘coach doors’ by Rolls-Royce.
– The “RR” logos on each of the wheel hubs are independent bezels in order to always remain upright while the wheel is rotating.
– Features include a power sunroof, upgraded leather upholstery, rear-view camera, rear-seat DVD entertainment system, 15-speaker Lexicon Logic7 premium sound system, 8-disc CD changer, 18-way power front seats, 16-way power rear seats, heated and cooled cup holders, rear-seat tables, outside-temperature indicator, universal garage door opener, power tilt/telescopic heated wood and leather-wrapped steering wheel with radio, climate, and navigation controls, power open/close boot lid, power closing doors, wireless headphones, iPod adapter, refrigerator, and air conditioning with 5-zone climate controls
