1972 Australian Delivered with VIN/Compliance plate VW Kombi Van in Duck Egg blue and white with grey interior. Being the updated model with the "lower headlights" this is the far more desirable series and worth the big money in collectors eyes. It has the pop-up camper roof, power points and literally drives like a new car.

This is an incredible Kombi van which has had $48,000.00 spent on the paint restoration and a further $25,000.00 spent upgrading the engine to the far more desirable 2.0 litre VW motor. The front seats are as new and super comfortable, the rear seat folds into a bed and the front bull bar has the spare tyre on it.

This car has been thoroughly inspected by a VW specialist and a PPI report is available to serious buyers only. We have loads of receipts from over the years and this is one of the finest Kombi's you will see in a long time.

As part of the sale this stunning Kombi has been carefully chosen to be part of an International TV Series being filmed here in NSW in January. At no extra cost the van will have the following modifications and will be ready for the new owner in late January or Early February. In addition the buyer can appear on the show purchasing the van if they should choose to.

Future jobs to be carried out as part of the sale are;

- NSW registration including a blue slip and CTP
- Solar panel and battery fitted
- Custom 40 litre water tank fitted
- Bespoke pull-out kitchen unit installed
